

HALLOWEEN

Do you actually know what you are participating in when you celebrate Halloween? When you allow your children to dress up as their “favorite” character or something representing the dead, while you as the parents pass out candy (treats) to children, and have carved pumpkins that have demon-like faces, on display outside of your door? If you don’t, let us enlighten you with the truth.

History traces Halloween back to the ancient Babylonians, who worshipped idols (pagan images or false gods). This same ideology is celebrated today and referred to as Halloween. These pagan images or “false gods” are witches, monsters, vampires, ghosts, ghouls, goblins, devils, and demons, which all portray evil and are displayed throughout schools, homes, churches, and businesses.

[Jeremiah 10:1-2: “Hear ye the word (laws and prophecies) which the Lord speaketh unto you, O house of Israel: (Our People) Thus saith the Lord, “Learn (observe nor celebrate) not the way (different pagan holiday traditions) of the heathen”] [Read also Amos 5:21; Isaiah 8:20]

THE DOCTRINES OF AMERICA HAVE NO TRUTH IN THE BIBLE!! [Read Hosea 4:1]

The rites of the ancient Babylonians have been passed down through the captivities upon the Celts. The Celts have learned and observed Babylonian traditions and rituals, which included the worshipping of false gods. They celebrated the natural cycle of the Winter and Summer solstices as well as the Spring and Autumn Equinox seasons. One in particular, known as “The Vigil of Samhain” (Lord of the Dead), is a ritual that commemorated the end of the year on the evening of October 31st. They believed Samhain had control of the spiritual and mortal worlds. Samhain would release evil spirits upon the earth on October 31st by opening the gates that divided these two realms. Hostile super natural forces (evil spirits) were free to torment the people. This is why the people dressed up in the most horrible fashion, to deceive the evil spirits and have them think that they were one of them. [Read Psalm

The Druids made bonfires, which burned throughout the celebration and “represented” the sun, which supposedly, would frighten the evil spirits.

[Deuteronomy 18:10: “There shall not be found (associated) among you anyone that maketh (allow) his son or his daughter to pass through fire (trusting and worshipping false gods), or that useth divination (tarot cards and psychics), or an observer of times (horoscope), or enchanter (sorcerer), or a witch.”] [Read also Deut. 12:30]

In honor of Halloween, European Caucasians who were known as beggars would travel to different towns begging for “soul cakes.” The beggars would promise to say a prayer on behalf of the dead relative of the donors of the “soul cakes.” [Read Ps. 106:28 and Rev. 2:14].

People also dressed up like fairies, witches, and demons, singing and dancing in exchange for food and drink, which evolved into “trick-or-treating.”

[Zephaniah 1:8: “And it shall come to pass in the day of the Lord’s sacrifice, that I will punish the princes (children), and the king’s children, and all (adults) such as are clothed with strange apparel (costumes such as demons, vampires, and skeletons).”] [Read also Num. 19:16]

The people of Mexico celebrate “Dia De Los Muertos” (The Day Of The Dead). They celebrate their dead family members by having festivals and parades.

[Amos: 5:21 and 23 “I hate, I despise your feast days, (holidays not according to the bible) and I will not smell (aroma of food) in your solemn assemblies (festivals or parades).

Take thou away from me the noise (musical instruments) of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols (singing).”]

As children get their faces painted to look like human skulls, there is also a supply of piñatas containing candy and plenty of food to be consumed. [Read Leviticus 19:28.]

This was a day when families would spend time at the cemetery, for the purpose of visiting the graves of their relatives. They would clean, paint, or decorate the headstones with ribbons; arrange flowers, light candles, leave food, candy, and wine. [Read Numbers 19:16.]

The “Jack-O-Lantern” represents the ancient symbol of a damned soul. The Irish carved out turnips or beets as lanterns to portray a dead soul or evil spirit freed from the dead. During the period in which the Irish Caucasians were in the process of immigrating to America, they were unable to find any turnips, so they carved pumpkins into Jack-O-Lanterns. These carved pumpkins were initially done to scare off evil spirits.

[Habakkuk 2:18: “What profiteth the graven image (Jack-o-Lanterns, idols, or false gods) that the maker (our people) thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies (American and world traditions), that the maker of his work trusteth therein (innocent traditions), to make dumb idols?] [Read also Exodus 20:4.]

As part of the Roman Catholic Church’s campaign to Christianize pagan festivals, All Saints Day was the day that remained unchanged for two centuries and was celebrated on November 1st by Pope Gregory IV. Its name changed to “Hallow Mass,” which meant “All Hallow” or “All Holy.” The word “Halloween” is a combination of two words – “Hallowed” and “Evening,” because it occurs on the eve of All Hallow, which is Halloween. [Read Jeremiah 7:4.] The Vatican even encouraged people to dress up like their favorite “saints.” A lot of these old festivals, which refuse to die, were frequently introduced into the Roman Catholic Church with new name. Many pagan gods became Christian saints.

[Apocrypha: Wisdom of Solomon 14:16 and 21: “Thus in process of time an ungodly custom grown strong was kept as a law, and graven images were worshipped by the commandments of kings.

And this was an occasion to deceive the world: for men, serving either calamity or tyranny, did ascribe unto stones and stocks the incommunicable name.”]

Halloween and other holidays have since become a confusing mixture of traditions and customs from pagan cultures, which have been turned into Christianity.

[Read John 4:22-23.]

When people all around the world celebrate Halloween, the powers of darkness are spread out as evil creatures, such as the ones decorated and displayed on houses, schools, businesses, and churches, with symbols of the occult, and people masquerading and glorifying satanic powers.

WHILE YOU MAY HAVE PARTICIPATED IN WHAT YOU THINK IS INNOCENT FUN, BE ASSURED THAT BEHIND IT ALL, YOU ARE WORSHIPPING SATAN!

[Read Rom. 12:2]

As you read this literature, you have already commenced the transformation of your mind by deciding to step out of this world and into the Truth.

[Colossians 2:8: "Beware lest any man spoil (destroy) you through philosophy (man's personal thoughts) and vain deceit, after the traditions (holidays) of men, after the rudiments (religious elements) of the world, and not after Christ."] [Also read Rev. 18:4]

We must do away with all evil doctrines that are anti-Christ and teach our children the ways of truth and righteousness, which is the spirit of Christ. [Read Leviticus 10:11 and Revelations 21:7-8.]
